GENERAL:

Applicants for positions in VIRGINIA:

Have you ever been convicted of a crime (other than traffic convictions)? A criminal conviction will not automatically disqualify an applicant. Nature of the crime, the date of the conviction, the job being applied for, and other factors will be considered. YES___NO___If yes, please give the complete facts showing date, place, reason and disposition in "Remarks Section".

All Applicants:

Do you currently have any relatives or friends employed with SMI. or any property under our management? YES___NO___ If yes, please provide name(s) in the "Remarks Section" below. SMI Anti-nepotism policy: SMI maintains an anti-nepotism policy with regard to employment of relatives within the same department, at the same "small property" which is defined as a property employing 12 persons or less, or when one relative would be in a supervisory capacity over the other relative. "Relative" is defined as: spouse, child, parent, grandparent, spouse of a parent or grandparent, sibling, spouse of a sibling, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, cousin; and parent, grandparent, child, or sibling of your spouse.

I understand that the position for which I am applying is one of trust and, therefore, authorize full investigation of all statements contained in and relating to this application and, further agree, if necessary, to execute any documents required in the investigation of the facts contained in my application. I also authorize SMI to contact any of the references listed herein or others, and I authorize those persons to release any information requested by SMI. I understand that SMI/The Apartment Community have an illegal substance alcohol abuse policy and will perform criminal background checks.

It is also understood that the position for which I am applying is not guaranteed for any particular length of time and that either SMI/ The Apartment Community or I remain free to terminate the relationship at any time with or without cause and with or without notice. I further understand that no supervisor or other representative of SMI/The Apartment Community has the authority to alter this relationship. _____(please initial)

If employed by SMI/ The Apartment Community or any other property for which SMI acts as agent, I agree to abide by and conform to all policies and rules. I understand as an employee and representative of SMI / The Apartment Community or any property for which SMI acts as agent that I will be dealing with and coming into contact with the clients of SMI / The Apartment Community and, therefore, agree and understand that cleanliness and proper grooming are prerequisites of employment and agree to abide by SMI standards.

I acknowledge that all information provided in this application and given by me during any interviews is truthful and that falsification or omission is grounds for disqualifying my application or, if hired, grounds for termination. I understand that this application will remain effective for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date submitted. Thereafter, I must reapply if I wish to continue to be considered for employment.

Scott Management, Inc. and The Apartment Community are equal opportunity employers and provide equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, and all other classes protected by applicable federal, state and local laws. # SCOTT MANAGEMENT, INC.

Notice of Alcohol & Controlled Substance Policy

Scott Management, Inc. (SMI) maintains a Substance Abuse Policy wherein all individuals, who accept employment with SMI, are required to submit to a urine test at a specified independent lab within a specific time frame.

I understand that if I am offered a position and accept same, I will be expected to consent to submit to a test to determine or rule out the presence of controlled substances or alcohol in my system.

I hereby agree to have the test results reported to the SMI human resources coordinator and understand that if the results are confirmed as positive the job offer may immediately be withdrawn, or, if employment has already commenced, I may be immediately discharged.

I understand that the taking of certain prescribed or over the counter medications can cause positive test results and that, if I wish to have any medications I am taking, or have recently taken, considered when my test results are reviewed, I will need to be prepared to provide this information at the time of accepting the offer of employment or after my test is completed.

EMPLOYMENT APPLICANT DISCLOSURE AND RELEASE FORM

As part of the application process in connection with hiring purposes of Scott Management, Inc. (SMI), I understand that they and/or their agents may conduct an investigation of my personal information. The investigation might include, but is not limited to, names and dates of previous/current addresses and/or employment, database search, criminal history records (local, state or national), moving violations reports, information held by federal or other agencies, bankruptcy records, credit history, character, general reputation, and personal characteristics. The investigation might also include personal interviews with any person who has knowledge of such information.

I understand the above referenced records and information may be used to establish the eligibility of my application for employment.

I authorize without reservation the full release of these records/information to SMI, SARMA and/or their agents for purposes of my application for employment, and, if hired, throughout the duration of my employment.

I certify that all information provided on my application for employment and/or during any interviews, is correct. Any false statements provided and/or omissions will be considered grounds for disqualifying my application or, if hired, just cause for termination.

I release and discharge SMI, SARMA and/or all of their agents and associates, and those providing these records and information to SMI, SARMA and/or their agents and associates, from all claims, expenses, losses, damages, liabilities, or any other charges or complaints arising out of, or relating to, the release of records/information.

I understand that I have the right to request the complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report performed, and hereby acknowledge receipt of the "Summary of Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act" enclosed herein.

SARMA will upon request, supply a copy of the credit report. SARMA can be reached at 1-800-955-5238.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
  - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
  - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
  - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
  - you are on public assistance;
  - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

Un resumen de sus derechos en virtud de la Ley de Informe Justo de Crédito

La Ley de Informe Justo de Crédito (Fair Credit Reporting Act, FCRA), una ley federal, fomenta la exactitud, imparcialidad y privacidad de la información en los archivos de las agencias de informe del consumidor. Existen muchos tipos de agencias de informe del consumidor, incluidas las agencias de crédito (credit bureaus) y las agencias especializadas (como las agencias que venden información sobre el historial de extensión de cheques, registros médicos y registros de historial de alquiler). A continuación se presenta un resumen de sus principales derechos en virtud de la FCRA. Para obtener más información, incluyendo información sobre derechos adicionales, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore o escriba a: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- Deben notificarle si la información contenida en su archivo se ha utilizado en su contra. Todo aquel que utilice un informe de crédito u otro tipo de informe de consumidor para denegar su solicitud de crédito, seguro o empleo, o para emprender otra acción adversa en su contra, debe informarle y debe darle el nombre, la dirección y el número de teléfono de la agencia que proporcionó esa información.
- Usted tiene derecho a saber lo que contiene su archivo. Usted puede solicitar y obtener toda la información registrada bajo su nombre en los archivos de una agencia de informe del consumidor (divulgación de su información). Usted deberá proporcionar una prueba de su identidad, que puede incluir su número de Seguro Social. En muchos casos, la divulgación de la información de su archivo será gratuita. Usted tiene derecho a recibir una copia gratuita de su archivo si:
  - Una persona ha emprendido una acción adversa en su contra debido a la información contenida en su informe de crédito.
  - Usted es víctima de un robo de identidad y coloca una alerta de fraude en su archivo.
  - Su archivo contiene información inexacta como resultado de fraude.
  - Usted recibe asistencia pública.
  - Usted no está empleado pero prevé solicitar empleo en un plazo de 60 días.

Asimismo, todos los consumidores tendrán derecho a recibir una copia gratuita de la información registrada en su archivo cada 12 meses si así se lo solicitan a cada agencia de crédito a nivel nacional y a las agencias especializadas de informe del consumidor a nivel nacional. Para obtener más información, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

- Usted tiene derecho a pedir su puntaje de crédito. Los puntajes de crédito son resúmenes numéricos de su solvencia de crédito basados en la información de las agencias de crédito. Usted puede solicitar su puntaje de crédito a las agencias de informe del consumidor que generan o distribuyen los puntajes utilizados en préstamos de bienes raíces residenciales, pero tendrá que pagar un cargo. En algunas transacciones hipotecarias, el prestamista le dará información sobre su puntaje de crédito gratuitamente.

- Usted tiene derecho a impugnar la información incompleta o inexacta. Si usted identifica información en su archivo que es incompleta o inexacta, y la reporta a la agencia de informe del consumidor, la agencia debe investigar, a menos que su impugnación sea frívola. Para consultar una explicación sobre los procedimientos de impugnación, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- Las agencias de informe del consumidor deben corregir o eliminar la información inexacta, incompleta o no verificable. La información inexacta, incompleta o no verificable debe ser eliminada o corregida, por lo general en un plazo de 30 días. No obstante, si una agencia de informe del consumidor verifica la exactitud de la información, puede seguir reportándola.
- Las agencias de informe del consumidor no pueden reportar información negativa desactualizada. En la mayoría de los casos, una agencia de informe del consumidor no puede reportar información negativa ocurrida hace más de siete años, ni quiebras ocurridas hace más de 10 años.
- El acceso a su archivo es limitado. Una agencia de informe del consumidor puede proporcionar información sobre usted solamente a aquellas personas que realmente la necesiten — generalmente para considerar una solicitud presentada por usted ante un acreedor, asegurador, empleador, propietario de una vivienda en alquiler u otro negocio. La FCRA especifica quiénes son las personas que tienen una necesidad válida de acceso.
- Usted debe otorgar su consentimiento para que se envíen sus informes a los empleadores. Una agencia de informe del consumidor no puede darle información sobre usted a su empleador, ni a un posible empleador sin su consentimiento escrito a nombre del empleador. Por lo general, el consentimiento escrito no es requerido en la industria del transporte de carga por camión. Para obtener más información, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- Usted puede limitar las ofertas "pre-evaluadas" de crédito y seguro que recibe y que están basadas en la información de su informe de crédito. Las ofertas "pre-evaluadas" de crédito y seguro no solicitadas deben incluir un número de teléfono gratuito al que usted puede llamar si desea eliminar su nombre y dirección de las listas en las que se basan estas ofertas. Puede solicitar su exclusión voluntaria de estas listas llamando a las agencias de crédito a nivel nacional al 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- El siguiente derecho, en virtud de la FCRA, se aplica a las agencias de informe del consumidor a nivel nacional:

LOS CONSUMIDORES TIENEN EL DERECHO A OBTENER UNA SUSPENSIÓN POR SEGURIDAD

Usted tiene derecho a colocar un "congelamiento de seguridad" en su informe de crédito, la misma que prohíbe a las agencias de informe del consumidor, a entregar información sobre su informe de crédito sin su autorización expresa. El congelamiento de seguridad está diseñado para evitar que créditos, préstamos y servicios se aprueben en su nombre sin su consentimiento. Sin embargo, usted debe saber que colocar un congelamiento de seguridad para controlar el acceso a la información personal y financiera en su informe de crédito podría retrasar, interferir o bloquear la aprobación a tiempo de peticiones o solicitudes posteriores que usted haga con respecto a un nuevo préstamo, crédito, hipoteca o cualquier otra transacción para obtener un crédito.

Como alternativa a un congelamiento de seguridad, usted tiene derecho a colocar una alerta de fraude inicial o extendida en su archivo de crédito sin costo alguno. Una alerta de fraude inicial es un aviso que se coloca en el archivo de crédito del consumidor por un (1) año. Cuando una alerta de fraude se despliega en el archivo de crédito del consumidor, la empresa está obligada a tomar medidas para verificar la identidad de dicho consumidor, antes de concederle un crédito. Si usted es una víctima del robo de identidad, usted tiene derecho a colocar una alerta de fraude extendida, que es un aviso de fraude que dura 7 años.

El congelamiento de seguridad no es aplicable a personas o entidades, ni a las subsidiarias o agencias de cobranza que actúen en nombre de dichas personas o entidades, con las cuales usted ya tiene una cuenta y que solicitan información sobre su informe de crédito con el fin de cobrarle o revisar su cuenta. Revisar una cuenta significa realizar ciertas actividades como el mantenimiento, vigilancia, actualizaciones, mejoras y aumentos a la línea de crédito de dicha cuenta.

- Usted puede obtener compensación de los infractores. Si una agencia de informe del consumidor o, en algunos casos, un usuario de informe del consumidor, o un proveedor de información de una agencia de informe del consumidor infringe la FCRA, usted puede demandarlo ante una corte estatal o federal.
- Las víctimas del robo de identidad y el personal militar en servicio activo tienen derechos adicionales. Para obtener más información, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
